( ) – Including special Academy Awards

~ Gone with the Wind is credited here with 11 awards, instead of the often-quoted 10, as its two special technical awards and the Thalberg Award are rightfully included in the total. This ties the film with Ben-Hur, Titanic and Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King as the top award winners.

↑ THUMBS UP

(This is my dividing line between thumbs-up and thumbs-down. It represents my best analysis regarding whether an intelligent, fairly discerning adult audience should see a film (keeping in mind that adults should learn to embrace their inner child from time to time). But, admittedly, film is immensely personal, as is all art. So, based upon your own tastes, age and life experiences, you might want to give a 2 ½ or even a 2 ¼-star film a try. Conversely, films that I've given 2 ¾ or 3 stars to might not work for you. Interestingly, Rotten Tomatoes assigns all films below 60 percent (those that get less than 3 stars on a 5-star scale) a thumbs-down. So films that get 2 ¾ stars on my scale are, for Rotten Tomatoes purposes, the same as a 3-star film.)
